

Application for change of an ISTA Personal Member / Laboratory Representative

A Member Laboratory membership includes a Personal Member / Laboratory Representative membership for one person, whose postal address has to be the same as that of the laboratory (normally the laboratory head). A Member Laboratory nominates the Personal Member to be its representative in the affairs of the Association.

With this form the Member Laboratory changes its contact person (Personal Member/Laboratory Representative) for ISTA.

Name of the current Personal Member / Laboratory Representative (to be replaced)

First Name

Family Name

Name of the new Personal Member / Laboratory Representative

First Name

Family Name

Title:

Gender: Male Female

Position

Telephone

E-mail

Name of the Laboratory

represented Name of the Laboratory

Address of the Laboratory

Telephone

Fax

E-mail

Upon acceptance of the application, the change in membership will become effective (please select as appropriate):

immediately:

or at a particular date:

The Personal Member / Laboratory Representative may be designated by their Designated Authority as a Designated Member, and be authorized to exercise the Country/Distinct Economy's voting rights on behalf of its Government at ISTA Ordinary General Meetings. The forms for designation of a Personal Member / Laboratory Representative to become a Designated Member can be obtained from the ISTA Secretariat.

Place and date

Signature of new Personal Member / Laboratory Representative

Laboratory stamp