

5 Aethusa cynapium

7 Ambrosia artemisiifolia

4 Beta vulgaris

3 Bifora sp.

2 Cicer arietinum

3 Datura stramonium

11 Euphorbia segetalis

3 Fagopyrum tataricum

5 Festuca arundinacea

5 Festuca pratensis

6 Guizotia abyssinica

7 lavandula angustifolia

1 Lupinus albus

8 Panicum miliaceum

5 Pastinaca sativa

10 Poa nemoralis

Four light brown, teardrop-shaped seeds of Sesamum indicum are shown against a light background. A vertical ruler is visible on the left side of the image.

4 Sesamum indicum

Two golden-brown grains of Triticum turgidum L. subsp. durum are shown. One is a single grain, and the other is a larger, more complex structure, possibly a spikelet or a cluster of grains. A vertical ruler is visible on the left side of the image.

2 Triticum turgidum
L. subsp. durum

Five dark brown, rounded seeds of Vicia pannonica are shown. A vertical ruler is visible on the left side of the image.

5 Vicia pannonica

Three dark brown, rounded seeds of Vicia sativa are shown. A vertical ruler is visible on the left side of the image.

3 Vicia sativa